REPORT

Organized by: Vivekananda Global University, Jaipur

Date: 30th June 2025

Venue: University Main Campus, Jaipur

Organized by: Department of Student Welfare in collaboration with Jaipur Traffic Police

Introduction:

Vivekananda Global University, Jaipur organized a Traffic Police Awareness Camp on 30th June 2025 at the university campus. The camp was conducted in collaboration with the Jaipur Traffic Police Department to raise awareness among students and staff about the importance of following traffic rules, wearing helmets, and ensuring road safety.

Objectives of the Camp:

The main objectives of the Traffic Police Awareness Camp were:

- To educate students about road safety measures and traffic rules.
- To create awareness about the consequences of traffic violations.
- To encourage the use of helmets, seat belts, and safe driving habits.
- To develop a sense of responsibility among young citizens toward road discipline.

Programme Details:

The event began with a welcome address by Dr. Promod Paudjdar, Dean of Student Welfare Society, VGU, who highlighted the need for road safety awareness among youth. The Chief Guest of the event was Mr. Rajesh Sharma (Traffic Inspector, Jaipur), accompanied by a team of traffic police officials.

The officials conducted an interactive session explaining various traffic signs, safety rules, and common mistakes that lead to accidents. A live demonstration was organized to showcase correct road-crossing techniques, helmet usage, and emergency responses. Students also participated enthusiastically in a quiz competition based on traffic symbols and laws.

Posters, banners, and short films on “Safe Drive, Save Life” were displayed throughout the campus to emphasize the importance of responsible driving.

Highlights of the Camp:

- Interactive talk by Jaipur Traffic Police Officers.
- Demonstration on road safety and CPR training.
- Pledge ceremony where students vowed to follow traffic rules.
- Distribution of informative pamphlets and awareness badges.

Outcome of the Camp:

The camp received an overwhelming response from both students and faculty members. It successfully created awareness about the need to follow traffic rules and practice road safety. Many students expressed their willingness to volunteer for future awareness drives.

Conclusion:

The Traffic Police Awareness Camp organized at Vivekananda Global University, Jaipur, was a great success. It not only educated the students about safe driving but also encouraged them to become responsible citizens. The collaboration between the University and the Jaipur Traffic Police set an excellent example of how educational institutions can contribute to community welfare and public safety.
